The Holes In the Moccasins.

In the secial life of the North Ameroccur significant of beliefs that are correctly. A ree comes to the cut in each sole. The Indian mother by the sot. The baby is thus recogniged as an Omaha child, for the moccasins anticipate the ceremony in sign of usage; they express the giver's prayer for a long life to the child. A person might enter the tent, see the tiny moccasins with the holes and exclaim, "What a long way the little one has traveled!" This, too, would be a prayer for long life to the child. If an unseen messenger from the spirit H. C. Fraser, world should approach the lafant to bid it come with him the child would be able to say, "No, I can't go with you; look, my moccasins are worn out!" And so the baby would not be taken away from its mother.

Gait of the Ground Cuckoo.

There are other birds in North America, such as the grouse or partridge. which can race swiftly along for a short distance, but when pursued by dogs or men on horseback the ground cuckoo gets his second wind after a time and can run for miles and miles at an incredible speed.

He can execute two gaits. Although his toes are disposed in opposite pairs. as in other species of his family, yet the outer toe, being reversible and of great flexibility, is in either position to aptly aid in climbing or perching. This at times he pitches along the ground in irregular but vigorous hops. And again, when the outer toe is thrown forward, he runs smoothly and with great ve-

Celt and Saxon.

One of Sheridan's tales was of an Irishman who met a Briton of the true John Bull pattern standing with folded arms in a contemplative mood, apparently meditating on the greatness of bis little island.

"Allow me to differ with yel" exclaimed the Celt. "But I have said nothing, sir," replied John Bull, "And a man may think a lie as well as publish it," persisted the pugnaclous Hibernian,

"Perhaps you are tooking for fight?" queried the Briton. "Allow nie to compliment ye on the quickness of yer perception," said Patrick, throwing down his coat. And then they pitched in.
